NCAA & NAIA - APPROVED CORE COURSES

The NCAA has a list of approved courses for use in establishing the initial-eligibility certification status of college student-athletes. College Prep Level classes are approved by the NCAA Clearing House. Student-athletes must $\log$ on and gain an access code for credits to be approved and released. Students should refer to the following website when choosing classes beginning their freshman year. NCAA - www.ncaaclearinghouse.net NAIA - www.ncsasports.org/naia-eligibility-center

Eligibility Highlights include:

NCAA Division I - student-athletes must have 10 of 16 credits by the end of their $7^{\text {th }}$ semester. 16 total Credits College Prep level Courses

4 credits (years) College Prep Level English,
3 credits (years) College Prep Level Math (Algebra 1 or higher)
2 credits (years) College Prep Level Science,
1 credit (years) Additional College Prep Level English, Math or Science
2 credits (years) Social Science
4 additional credits (years) in any of the 4 areas: College Prep Level English College Prep Level Math College Prep Level Science College Prep Level Social Science
Foreign language Religion / Philosophy.

NCAA Division II - student-athletes must have 16 total College Prep level credits. 16 total Credits College Prep level Courses

3 credits (years) College Prep Level English
2 credits (years) College Prep Level Math (Algebra 1 or higher)
2 credits (years) College Prep Level Science
3 credits (years) Additional College Prep Level English, Math or Science
2 credits (years) Social Science
4 additional credits in any of the 4 areas: College Prep Level Eng, College Prep Level Math
College Prep Level Science
College Prep Level Social Science
Foreign language
Religion / Philosophy.
NCAA Division III - you must meet the admissions standards for the institution you attend

NAIA - Student Athletes must meet 2 of the following 3 categories:

1. Achieve a minimum of 18 on the ACT or 970 on the SAT
2. Achieve a minimum overall high school grade point average of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale
3. Graduate in the top half of your high school class
